Privacy Policy

As "the Organisers" of Airports Innovate (ACI EUROPE; ACI ASIA-PACIFIC & MIDDLE EAST; ACI WORLD), we are committed to respecting your privacy and recognise the need to protect the personally identifiable information (any information by which you can be identified, such as name, address, email and telephone number) you share with us. We would like to assure you that we follow appropriate standards when it comes to protecting your privacy on our websites.

Use of Personal Information

There are times when we may collect personal information from you. It is our intent to inform you before we do that and to tell you what we intend to do with the information. The collection of personal information may include notifications and important updates relating to Airports Innovate.

Disclosure of Personal Information

By completing the registration form, you consent to distribute your contact details to the host and "the Organisers" of this event. You also consent to the inclusion of your name, job title, and company name in business matching services and any marketing and promotion to be distributed at or after the event.

"The Organisers" of Airports Innovate will not sell, trade, or disclose to third parties any information derived from the registration for, or use of, any online service (including names and addresses) without the consent of the user or customer (except as required by subpoena, search warrant, or other legal process or in the case of imminent physical harm to the user or others). When "the Organisers" use other agents, contractors, or companies to perform services on their behalf, "the Organisers" will ensure that the company protects your personally identifiable information consistent with this policy.

Personal Information Protection

"The Organisers" will take appropriate steps to protect the information you share with us. We have implemented technology and security features and strict policy guidelines to safeguard the privacy of your personally identifiable information from unauthorised access and improper use or disclosure.

The organisation of Airports Innovate is carried out in cooperation with subcontractor companies. Invitations as well as promotional content regarding these events may be sent on behalf of ACI by these companies, duly authorised to do so by the terms of cooperation. All subcontractors will ensure full compliance with the General Data Protection Regulation and will submit a certificate of compliance with its requirements to ACI.
